

CONFINED SPACE RESCUE HARNESS

Confined space entry and rescue is a very serious issue and this harness enables a person to be rescued vertically with the use of the extension strap which is attached. It has 2-points of attachment for use in other applications such as fall arrest and restraint.

This harness is a necessity when working in confined spaces to comply with safety legislation.

FEATURES & BENEFITS

Plastic retainers to keep straps tidy
Light alloy steel hardware
Sub-pelvic strap
Extension strap for access and rescue in confined spaces
Two-tone colour for an easy donning and easy inspection
Fully adjustable thigh, chest and leg straps
Fall indicator for easy inspection
2 points of anchorage

CONFORMITY

EN 361: 2002 & EN 1497: 2007 Rated to 140 kg.
The lifespan of the product is 10 years from the date of manufacture subject to passing necessary checks and inspection by a competent person.
Static strength: 15kN for 3 min at each attachment element
Dynamic strength: Free fall from 4m height donned to a test dummy weighing 100 kg at each attachment element.